

Caribe Royale Orlando Welcomes Convention and Pleasure Travelers

Whether you are traveling on business or pleasure, the Caribe Royale Orlando All-Suites Resort and Convention Center welcomes you with its lush tropical landscape, cascading waterfalls, and wonderful hospitality. This 45-acre oasis has received two thumbs up from its partner company CRSHotels.com, which provides hotel accommodation at the finest boutique hotels across the United States.

Your family or business group will find the Caribe Royale's 1,218 spacious one-bedroom suites with separate living rooms a comfortable choice. If you are planning your honeymoon, you will truly appreciate these beautifully appointed suites. The 120 lakefront two-bedroom villas with kitchens, screened patios and master suites with whirlpool tubs are perfect for larger families.

Remember to pack your athletic gear as this resort offers several on-site recreational and fitness options including the two-story fitness center and tennis courts. Your group will enjoy unwinding at the 250,000-gallon free-form swimming pool featuring waterfalls and a 75-foot water slide, a favorite with kids and adults alike. If you prefer the convenience of onsite services such as concierge service, car rental service, and currency exchange service then this is the resort for you.

When you are planning your business meetings, consider the Caribe Royale Orlando's convention center, which offers 150,000 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space - three ballrooms, 31 breakout rooms and three executive boardrooms. Your meeting attendees will also enjoy the relaxing atmosphere one of the 120 lakeside villas in this resort, which can be used for breakout meetings of up to 14 people. Add to all this, the latest audio/visual, sound and lighting equipment and trained experts assigned to ensure that your group event is seamless, and one understands why this resort is a convention planner's delight.

CRSHotels.com travelers consistently give the Caribe Royale Orlando top ranking for the varied and excellent dining offerings. You can choose the option of 24-hour in-suite dining or you may visit one of their restaurants offering a variety of menus. The Venetian Room, which offers Continental cuisine, is the recipient of the AAA's prestigious Four Diamond Award. Enjoy all-day casual dining at The Tropicale, a full service restaurant, and or visit the Café Largo, a market-style eatery serving up roasted chicken, pizzas, deli food, salads and late-night snacks. If you choose to bask in the Orlando weather by the poolside, Calypso's is right there offering burgers, tropical drinks and other tasty treats.

Whether you are attending a convention or taking a leisure trip, the Caribe Royale keeps you in touch by offering access to wireless Internet in the resort lobby and in the convention center. Allow their friendly employees to serve you by securing advance tickets to popular Orlando attractions or scheduling your group for their complimentary transportation to Walt Disney World theme parks.

Relax your suite by watching your favorite movies on cable TV or surf the Net with high speed access, which the Caribe Royale provides for a nominal fee. They also offer you the added convenience of in-room safe, hair dryer, iron and ironing board, and telephone with voicemail and data-port.

When it's time for golfing, the Caribe Royale will direct you to one of several of Orlando's finest championship golf courses, all within easy reach. With millions of square feet of retail shopping space nearby, you and your group will be able to enjoy limitless shopping experiences. The beauty and the conveniences offered by this elegant resort are just some of the qualities why the Caribe Royale Orlando comes highly recommended by CRSHotels.com. Caribe Royale Orlando is the destination of choice whether you are seeking a break from your everyday routine or planning a convention.